

EATA Student Delegation Conference Call Minutes
January 5, 2017
Friday, 9:00am

1. Call to Order (Dolci Wagner) 8:23 am
2. Roll Call (Brianna Thorburn)
 - a. Present
 - i. Brianna Thorburn
 - ii. Dolci Wagner
 - iii. Liz Cieszko
 - iv. Bri Ferullo
 - v. Paige McHenry
 - vi. Jeager Bailey
 - vii. Madie DiBona
 - viii. Andrew Meister
 - ix. Antonia Ciccarelli
 - x. Mary Mundrane-Zweiacher
 - xi. Jessica Kerr – on the phone
 - xii. Molly Zabilowicz – on the phone
 - xiii. Cassidy Sirois – on the phone
 - b. Not Present
 - i. John Hauth
3. Updates of the 2018 EATA Conference (Mary MZ)
 - a. There have been no changes to our Program, our program will be located in the student ballroom.
 - b. Taping contest will be set up in the same room as the Quiz Bowl, and Dolci will set up the Taping contest scoring sheets on her laptop at 5 pm. We will then be accepting contestants
4. Review of 2018 Student Program (Elizabeth Cieszko)
 - a. Changes/problems?
 - i. Justin Feldman would like to make his lecture interactive. Lab assistant will be needed in shorts and a t-shirt.
 - ii. Dr. Kaminski, volunteer and give questions/feedback so there is no silence. He wants it to be more of a discussion. He created a document that is posted on EATA website, please read up on it.
 - iii. Pinky Newell Address is immediately after the Leadership Roundtable.
 - b. Taping Contest Criteria (Elizabeth C.)
 - i. No questions from Delegates. The video made by Maddie and the Rowan Athletic Training Club was posted online in December and will be shown just before the Taping Contest starts.
5. Review of further events in Boston (Mary)
 - a. Working Registration Desk
 - i. Start location and time: 2nd floor, 12 pm.
 - ii. Laurie Zaparzinski is Chair of Registration.
 - b. Travel Arrangements (Molly Zabilowicz)

- i. For budgeting purposes, you need to contact Molly if you had any changes to your travel.
 - ii. Talk to Dave about an updated reimbursement form for 2018.
 - c. Taping Contest (may need to help Mueller give out water bottles)
 - i. Follow the criteria of the taping contest.
 - ii. Times will be recorded on excel sheet with a bracket, so everyone in the audience can see the times.
 - d. Graduate School Exhibitors/NATA-PAC
 - i. Smaller group, we only have four exhibitors.
 - ii. Raffle off hockey pucks and football.
 - e. Raffle items
 - i. We have more raffle items than we have graduate school exhibitors.
 - ii. NATAPAC has their own raffle as well but it is a Silent Auction.
 - iii. Hotel is supplying raffle tickets, and Lenny needs them for the Exhibit Hall as well. He will give the ones he doesn't need to Mary.
 - iv. Lenny is in charge of the Exhibitors, and he will ask them what he can take for donations to the Student Program.
 - f. Moderators for Student Program (Mary)
 - i. Make sure you meet the person you are moderating for before you introduce them. The Moderator will then thank them and give the speaker gift at the end of their lecture.
 - g. Leadership Roundtable (Paige McHenry)
 - i. Paige will send out an email to the Delegation about who is attending so we can prepare questions.
 - ii. Everyone must attend the Pinky Newell address.
 - iii. Paige has done an outstanding job with this but the NATA Reps have not been responsive. We may think about making it part of the EATA organized Program, with Delegates organizing it.
 - h. Twitter/Web (Andrew Meister)
 - i. Instagram is up, with 41 followers. @eatastudents
 - ii. Put up the Instagram page, and have people follow them.
 - iii. At the Taping Contest, we will put up a picture of the Instagram account, and we will choose a winner on Sunday using a Jumble.
- 6. Old Business (Dolci W.)
 - a. Grass Roots (Dolci W.)
 - i. To be launched tomorrow
 - ii. Criteria Discussion was "AT cares – how we show that we care" (was modified after discussion with EATA Board).
 - iii. Instragram was the mode of entry discussed.
 - iv. Deadline: March 31st
 - v. Winner by April 16th
- 7. New Business (Dolci W.)
 - a. Tim Weston's Keynote Address will focus on questions about the interview process when new graduates are looking for a job.
- 8. Next Conference Call

- a. When we receive feedback from the online questionnaires, date is TBD. End of January or early February.
9. Closing Remarks
- a. The lectures and workshops are meant to be an introduction to a skill or current research. Students should not expect to become proficient with our limited time workshop .
 - b. Meeting adjourned at 9:17 am.

Sincerely,

Brianna Thorburn, EATA Secretary